MODEL: B3YB

B3YB

Combat's new B3YB takes over where the industry-leading B1YB left off. With unmatched performance and the legendary Combat feel in a long-barrel single wall construction. The B3 has the same great feel and performance of the B1 – but advances in our Blended Fiber and Anisotropic Composite Technologies have allowed us to engineer a more durable bat than ever before. The B3's incredible combination of legendary performance, the soft Combat feel, our super sweetspot size and improved durability makes this bat unmatched in the industry!
